Joining Integrated Research Teams

STUDENT INFORMATION

Name (first and last) _____________________________

Major(s)/minor(s) at Duke _____________________________

Year at Duke _____________________________

Language(s) spoken _____________________________

Primary phone number _____________________________

Email address _____________________________

Special Interests and Skills

☐ Photography ☐ Statistics/data analysis ☐ Website development
☐ Videography ☐ Ethnographic/oral history methods ☐ Other _____________________________

Please provide a few sentences about yourself and why you are interested in Brazil. Be sure to note whether you have had previous experiences in Brazil and/or Latin America and whether you have completed (or plan to complete in spring 2016) Portuguese language training. (If you have specific research interests, feel free to list them below.)

If you would like additional information about one of the projects or activities affiliated with the Global Brazil Humanities Lab at Duke, check the appropriate boxes below.

Baixada Fluminense, Rio de Janeiro (Summer 2016)

☐ Higher Education and Social Mobility

John French (jdfrench@duke.edu)

☐ Teaching African and Afro-Brazilian History

John French (jdfrench@duke.edu)

☐ Capoeira

Katya Wesolowski (katya.wesolowski@duke.edu)

Additional Opportunities

☐ Sound and Politics Project

Brian Pitts (mbpittsjr@gmail.com)

☐ Art and Publics: Pop Art Exhibit at Nasher/Museum Internships in Brazil

Esther Gabara (egabara@duke.edu)

☐ Affirmative Action Project

John French (jdfrench@duke.edu)

☐ Portuguese language instruction at Duke

Magda Silva (mbsilva@duke.edu)