

MANUSCRIPT MIGRATION LAB PRESENTS

THE TWEED COLLECTION OF ETHIOPIC MANUSCRIPTS

Gay L. Byron (Humanities Unbounded Visiting Faculty Fellow 2021-2022) will host a seminar featuring the Tweed Collection of Ethiopic manuscripts at Howard University School of Divinity.

In this seminar, Alice Ogden Bellis, Steve Delamarter, and Ralph Lee will describe the Beta Mesaheft (BM) platform for digitally preserving and presenting Ethiopic manuscripts and some of its advantages over other choices. They will explain the process of how the metadata from manuscripts is coded and entered into BM featuring manuscripts from the Tweed Collection.

---

Friday, October 7, 2022 -12:00 to 1:15pm
via Zoom - Register at <https://cutt.ly/tweed>

Manuscript Migration Lab
AT THE FRANKLIN HUMANITIES INSTITUTE